During yesterday's protest in Washington D.C., a Turmp-supporting US Air Force Veteran, Ashli Babbitt, was shot dead by a Capitol Police officer (who has been placed on leave) as she attempted to climb through a broken window to bypass a barricade, along with other Trump supporters.

Filming the incident from behind Babbitt, however, was Utah resident John Sullivan - founder of the far-left organization "Insurgence USA" who made headlines in July after he was arrested for intimidating drivers in Provo. Sullivan was interviewed by the Daily Mail and CNN following Wednesday's shooting - both of which failed to provide a satisfactory answer as to why he was there in the first place.

Sullivan told the Mail that "he was not at the Capitol as part of the protest but did not specify what exactly brought him there."

MEDIA BLACKOUT!

The founder of the radical left-wing activist group Insurgence USA, John Sullivan, was inside the capitol & filmed Ashli Babbit lying in a pool of blood dying!

Sullivan is a well-known violent agitator in Utah who was arrested for violence against conservatives

CNN interviewed this criminal about the video but seemed to "forget" to ask him why he was there? And why he was arrested for violence against conservatives and starting riots in Utah!

The Daily Mail was too lazy to interview

THE Daily Mail was too lazy to investigate too:
